

Join us at the Chamber's Government Affairs Conference to kick off the 2012 legislative session. Once again, the event will be followed by a member reception.** You can meet members of the General Assembly and other state and business leaders to discuss items critical to creating jobs and growing the economy. The Chamber will be supporting issues of concern to the business community including a focus on tax policies, education reform, unemployment insurance, tort laws, water infrastructure needs and environmental regulations.
